THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS — Lindsay Botsford, MD, of Houston, Texas, was sworn in as parliamentarian of the Texas Academy of Family Physicians during the 2021 Annual Session and Primary Care Summit in The Woodlands. Botsford assumed her duties Nov. 6 at the TAFP Business and Awards Lunch.

Botsford is an Ohio transplant who has made Houston her home for the last 22 years, where she lives with her husband and two boys. She enjoys reading, playing sports, and doing anything outdoors. She attended Rice University and Baylor College of Medicine, followed by residency with the Baylor/Kelsey-Seybold program.

During her year as TAFP Parliamentarian, Botsford will work with other officers to lead the Academy: Immediate Past President and Board Chair Amer Shakil, MD, of Dallas; President Mary Nguyen, MD, of Castroville; President-elect Emily Briggs, MD, of New Braunfels; and Treasurer Terrance Hines, MD, of Austin.

Family physicians like Botsford are qualified to work in all major medical areas and are trained to treat more than 90 percent of all cases they encounter. Family physicians care for patients of all ages.
